DECISION ON ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS¹

Dorsey, Chief Special Master:

On October 8, 2014, petitioner filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq.,² (the "Vaccine Act"). Petitioner alleges that she suffered a left shoulder injury as a result of receiving an influenza vaccine on October 12, 2012. On August 21, 2015, the undersigned issued a decision awarding compensation to petitioner based on respondent's proffer. (ECF No. 32).

On August 2, 2016, petitioner filed a motion for attorneys' fees and costs. (ECF No. 39). Petitioner requests attorneys' fees in the amount of $3,840.00. Id. at 1. In compliance with General Order #9, petitioner has filed a signed statement indicating petitioner incurred no out-of-pocket expenses.³

² National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, Pub. L. No. 99-660, 100 Stat. 3755. Hereinafter, for ease of citation, all "$" references to the Vaccine Act will be to the pertinent subparagraph of 42 U.S.C. § 300aa (2012).

On August 3, 2016, respondent indicated by email correspondence that respondent has no objection to the amount requested in petitioner's motion. (See Informal Remark, dated August 4, 2016).

The Vaccine Act permits an award of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs. § 15(e). Based on the reasonableness of petitioner's request and the lack of opposition from respondent, the undersigned GRANTS petitioner's motion for attorneys' fees and costs.

Accordingly, the undersigned awards the total of $3,840.00⁴ as a lump sum in the form of a check jointly payable to petitioner and petitioner's counsel Danny Ray Ellis, Esq.

The clerk of the court shall enter judgment in accordance herewith.⁵

IT IS SO ORDERED.

³ Petitioner's statement pursuant to General Order No. 9 was incorrectly filed on August 5, 2016, as a "stipulation." (See ECF No. 40.)

⁴ This amount is intended to cover all legal expenses incurred in this matter. This award encompasses all charges by the attorney against a client, "advanced costs" as well as fees for legal services rendered. Furthermore, § 15(e)(3) prevents an attorney from charging or collecting fees (including costs) that would be in addition to the amount awarded herein. See generally Beck v. Sec'y of Health & Human Servs., 924 F.2d 1029 (Fed. Cir.1991).

⁵ Pursuant to Vaccine Rule 11(a), entry of judgment can be expedited by the parties' joint filing of notice renouncing the right to seek review.
